CONGRATULATIONS on finding your new place!!

The good news is you found a new home and put a roof over your head. The bad news is the real work begins. People say moving is one of the top 5 most stressful things in life... and from experience, we agree.

Moving to another home or another city, can be a colossal task, requiring organization, planning and the right supplies to ensure the move goes smoothly. How do you pack effectively? How do you ensure that you know where everything you packed is?

The only moving guide in NJ built by the feedback of people just like you!

There is so much to think about and even when you think you've got everything covered, we all still end up forgetting something. Plus, moving can be extremely time consuming and expensive to get through the whole process.

So, as relocation specialists in New Jersey, we work with thousands of people who move every single day. And we started asking them for their checklists and tips to put together this guide to help people like you make moving easier.

And because we work with so many people every single day, we've negotiated some amazing moving deals and discounts with both local and national companies to help you get settled into your new home.

So, between helping you organize yourself, getting you great deals, and providing discounts to help you get settled in... we've got you covered! Good luck with your move and feel free to reach out to us at EZMove@GardenStateApartments.com if you have any suggestions to improve this guide!

Best regards,
The GSA Team

PS- Feel free to pass it along to anyone you know who could use the help and save some money!

In case you were wondering the other four stressful things are work, debt, sickness, and relationship problems.*

Local & National Moving Companies

Moving Quotes- Fast, free, and easy!

Whether you're moving across the street or across the nation, choosing the right moving company will save you money, reduce stress, and protect you and your belongings.

But finding the right mover isn't always as easy as just picking up the phone book. Finding qualified and reputable moving companies takes a lot of research and phone calls to find out if they have proper state and federal licensing, provide quality of service and have the right certification

"That seems like a lot of work, doesn't it?"

Relax, we've got you covered.

Since we help hundreds of people every day find quality movers, we've made finding the right moving company easy.

All you have to do is fill out 1 form with us and we'll have moving companies compete for your business.

Why go through the hassle of finding, calling, and interviewing moving companies? GSA now gets you FREE Multiple Moving quotes from qualified moving companies all over New Jersey and the country.

And even if you thought it was out of your budget, at least find out how much it will cost!

Before you rent a truck, see how much it'll cost to have someone else move you!

MEMBER FAQs:

Should I pick one truck rental company? Or try them both?

We recommend checking out what both companies have to offer. Then compare them to pick the one that is either a) priced better or b) closer for pick up / drop off.

Aren't all rental trucks the same?

No way! Many small & local companies buy second hand trucks and rarely go through regular quality inspections. If you are going to move yourself and all of your worldly belongings, make sure you choose a rental truck company with quality trucks and high standards.

PS: Don't pay retail prices for moving supplies. Keep trucking through this guide to make sure you get discount prices on the supplies you need to move your stuff safely.

Discount Moving Supplies (Boxes, bubble wrap, tape, and much more)

Quality materials and supplies at wholesale prices!

Inside the boxes you use are your valuable, in some cases priceless possessions. You may be tempted to grab boxes from the local department store or recycling center, but not all boxes are alike. You should be aware of how box quality, size and loads will affect your move.

What type of moving boxes and packing supplies do you need? Where are you going to buy them and how much are they going to charge you?

Obviously, the goal of this guide is to help you in all aspects of your move. And that includes packing boxes and packing supplies.

So, how many moving boxes and what types of packing supplies do you need? Use our online calculator and box kits to take advantage of our wholesale supplies and make your move easier!

Avoid paying retail for moving supplies and don't just use any old boxes.

No matter when you need to start packing, get you everything you need FAST!

Renter's Insurance Quotes- (Plus auto, health, life, & more)

Compare insurance quotes quickly & easily

Before you skip past this section, ask yourself. How much do your belongings mean to you and how difficult would it be to replace it all?

Fires, floods, and theft could destroy everything you own in the blink of an eye. It happened to our CEO's brother*. It could easily happen to you.

We think you owe it to yourself to consider getting renter's insurance.

It's less expensive than you think and could really be a life saver when you need it most.

Think about it. Renters face the same risk as homeowners in cases of disasters striking their home. Your landlord or condo association may have insurance, but this only protects the building, not your things in it. Renter's insurance can protect your belongings in case of disaster.

We are working with a great online company, Netquote, who lets you compare renters insurance from some of the country's largest renter's insurance companies.
